

To Whom It May Concern;

Total Personnel Solutions (TPS) has been a service provider of the highest quality to the Quik X Group of Companies since May of 2003. Throughout the entire period, TPS has maintained their standards for superior quality in professional vehicle operators. By ensuring proper screening, face to face interview techniques and applying their understanding of the industry needs to every hire, we are assured a dedicated professional will represent our company and the industry where it counts the most, in the truck, on the road and at our customer's dock!

It has been our experience all TPS employees receive fair, unbiased treatment while enjoying the luxury of a very approachable administrative group. All managers with TPS listen carefully to every idea, recommendation or concern of employees and customers. Every communication is viewed as an opportunity to TPS and mutual agreement or resolve is the goal of every manager and administrator.

The management team at TPS is committed to ensuring customer satisfaction and employee contentment while using these attributes as measures of strength and stability within their organization. We are proud to be associated with Total Personnel Solutions. Their pursuit of excellence is refreshing and inspiring!

Sincerely,
